Government Order No.P.6927-34 Legis.59-28-1 dated 14th May 1929 passing orders regulating the printing and distribution of copies of Acts and volumes of Mysore Code etc.

Order No.

Dated, Bangalore,

1941.

Under paragraph 2 of the Government Order read above, the Acts passed in every calendar year have to be bound into a volume and as soon after the close of the year as possible 20 copies of the ~~xix~~^{xix} volume ~~has~~^{are} to be supplied to the Legislative ~~tion~~ Department of the Secretariat and 10 copies to the High Court.

It has been represented to Government that as additional volumes of the Mysore Code will, under this Government order, be brought out at intervals varying from three to five years, considerable difficulty is being experienced by the Advocates and the public in having access to a set of the Mysore Acts for reference and use.

20 copies of the volumes containing Acts passed in every calendar year are also found insufficient for use in the Secretariat.

Government are therefore pleased to direct, in modification of the Government order read above, that 300 copies of the volume of Acts passed in a calendar year be printed ~~and~~ as soon after the close of the year as possible and 100 copies of them supplied to the Legislative Department of the Secretariat and the remaining 200 copies made available for sale to the public. OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

No. P. 6927-34—LEGIS. 59-28-1, DATED 14TH MAY 1929.

The following instructions are issued to regulate the printing and distribution of copies of Regulations and volumes of the Mysore Code:—

(1) Copies of every Regulation should be distributed by the Government Press, as soon as it is published in the Gazette, in accordance with Government Order No. P. 5221-85—Legis. 56-27-11, dated 12th March 1928. The type should be kept standing and used with necessary readjustment to re-print the Regulation as edited, paged and, where necessary, prefixed with a table of contents by the Legislative Department of the Secretariat and copies thereof will be kept in the Government Press and bound in due course into the annual volumes and volumes of the Mysore Code referred to below.

(2) The Regulations passed in every calendar year will be bound into a volume and as soon after the close of the year as possible 20 copies of the volume will be supplied to the Legislative Department of the Secretariat and 10 copies to the Chief Court. The other offices should preserve the Gazette copies of the Regulations passed and get them stitched at the end of each year and keep the volume for purposes of reference.

(3) Additional volumes of the Mysore Code with a chronological table of contents and an index for each volume will be brought out at intervals varying from three to five years according to instructions issued by the Legislative Department.

(4) When Regulations or the Rules framed under Regulations are required to be merely re-printed, the Government Press is responsible for carefully correcting the proofs and no proofs should be sent to the Secretariat unless they are specially called for. The Superintendent of the concerned Branch of the Secretariat is responsible to see that the copy sent to the Press is accurate in every particular.

ORDER No. P. 1200-60—LEGIS. 22-41-1, DATED BANGALORE,
THE 17TH SEPTEMBER 1941.

Under paragraph 2 of the Government Order read above, the Acts passed in every calendar year have to be bound into a volume and as soon after the close of the year as possible, 20 copies of the volume have to be supplied to the Legislative Department of the Secretariat and 10 copies to the High Court.

2. It has been represented to Government that as additional volumes of the Mysore Code will, under this Government Order, be brought out at intervals varying from three to five years, considerable difficulty is being experienced by the advocates and the public in having access to a set of the Mysore Acts for reference and use.

3. Twenty copies of the volumes containing Acts passed in every calendar year are also found insufficient for use in the Secretariat.

4. Government are therefore pleased to direct, in modification of the Government Order read above, that 300 copies of the volume of Acts passed in a calendar year be printed as soon after the close of the year as possible, 100 copies of them supplied to the Legislative Department of the Secretariat, 16 copies to the High Court and the remaining 184 copies made available for sale to the public. The revised order will come into force immediately and the volume of Acts passed in the year 1940 will be got prepared under these revised directions.
